

As a student enrolled in Latinos in Action, you will learn leadership skills, mentor students at a local Elementary School, learn about opportunities and needs to plan for your future, and develop a deeper understanding of your cultural heritage. You are expected to model responsibility, caring, self-discipline, hard work, and a good attitude.

You need to have an overall GPA at least 2.0 to enroll in this class and maintain it throughout the school year. This is an elective class and you will receive elective credit. Latinos in Action is a yearlong class.
